

Skyhawks Basketball Camp $140

Designed for beginning and intermediate basketball players, participants learn new skills while building upon the fundamentals. Participants have a great time as they refine their passing, shooting and dribbling skills. Participants put these abilities to the test at the end of the week in a tournament. Participant-to-coach ratio is approximately 10:1.

Basketball participants must bring:

- T-shirt/shorts/sweats/socks (i.e., appropriate clothing)
- Lunch, Snack & Water Bottle (for programs over four hours)
- Shoes (running shoes are fine; no black soles)

Basketball participants will receive:

- Basketball, T-shirt & Player Evaluation form filled out by their coach.

Types of Programs: Elementary, teen, fee class, rental

The McKinley Neighborhood Center offers programming in partnership with several non-profit organizations and foundations from our community. These programs are offered in English and Spanish. Schedules of current programming can be obtained by visiting the center.

CORAL Foundation After School Program

In cooperation with the CORAL Foundation, after school programming for elementary age youth in grades 3-5 is available at the McKinley Neighborhood Center. CORAL after school programming integrates leadership, arts, and literacy learning activities.

MACSA After School Computer Club

The Mexican American Community Services Agency offers basic computer skills for elementary age youth Monday through Friday as part of after school programming. Youth are accepted on a first come, first serve basis.

MACSA Street Reach Project

A joint effort by the City of San José Strong Neighborhoods Initiative Program and the Mexican American Community Services Agency, the MACSA Street Reach Project offers alternatives for at-risk teens in the areas near McKinley Elementary and JW Fair Middle Schools. Counseling for teens and parents is provided on a case-by-case basis. Teens going through the program attend workshops and events designed to guide teens towards a more positive and constructive lifestyle. Additional information can be obtained by contacting the McKinley Neighborhood Center.

McKinley/ Bonita Neighborhood Association

The McKinley/ Bonita Neighborhood Association meets monthly to strengthen their neighborhood, provide input to center staff on programs and community issues, and plan events that improve their community. Volunteers are actively involved in the adoption of Martin Park and the Forestdale Tot Lot and regularly meet to clean the park sites and help beautify the area.

Neighborhood leaders have also been actively involved in plans and activities to improve their community through the Five Wounds / Brookwood Terrace Strong Neighborhoods Initiative. If you would like to be part of this energetic group of neighborhood leaders, please contact the McKinley Neighborhood Center for a schedule of meetings.
